Post 2 — Did You Know / Education Post

🟡 Did you know? Clear cell sarcoma (CCS) is an ultra-rare soft tissue cancer that primarily affects teenagers and young adults. Because it is so rare, finding clinical trials and treatment options can be incredibly difficult for patients and their families. ❤️ That's why awareness matters. That's why we #GoYellowForCCS every July.

Share this post and help spread the word. 🗣️
